Terms & Conditions

Function timing is the client's responsibility to ensure that the function begins at the specified starting time. The venue will not be held responsible should attendees not be punctual. If the function begins after the specified starting time it will still be subject to the finishing time specified in the event booking agreement, unless management agrees otherwise.

Compliance with club rules is the client's responsibility. Clients are responsible for the orderly behavior of their guests and the venue reserves the right to intervene where it deems necessary.

As a duty of care to all patrons, we reserve the right to refuse service to intoxicated guests, those under the age of 18 years, or those who are supplying alcohol to minors or intoxicate guests. Due to licensing laws, food and alcohol CANNOT be brought onto premises unless prior arrangement has been made. As part of our booking agreement a Nominated RSA contact must be nominated and introduced to staff before the function commences. A copy of the Mildura Working Man's Club function agreement must be signed.

The venue will only accept delivery of goods one (1) working day prior to the function and request that all goods be removed at the completion of the function unless prior arrangement has been made.

Personal effects, the Mildura Working Man's Club prides itself on care with its guests and their belonging. However, we cannot accept responsibility for damages or loss of items at Mildura Working Man's Club before, during or after the event.

There are no surcharges for the minimum floor staff, unless special request have been made.

Outside contractors. For all functions, plans must be approved by the venue a minimum 14 days prior to the function. Outside contractors must liaise with the venue in all matters of delivering, set up and break down. Outside contractors appointed by the client must at all times abide by the venues regulations and instructions. All outside contractors will be required to obtain their own appropriate Public Liability Insurance with a minimum $10,000,000 and must provide a certificate of currency to Mildura Working Man's Club.

Entertainment is allowed in the venue until 11:30pm but must comply with noise restrictions.

No signage is to be pinned, screwed, glued or otherwise attached to the walls of the venue of any area of the venue unless approved by management.

Damages. Clients are financially liable for any damages sustained to the venue caused by the actions of their guests, their outside contractors or any other person attending the function.

Insurance. It is the client's responsibility to take out insurance for all items belonging to them or their guests for the period of time the items are in the venue.

Security may be a requirement of booking the function. Mildura Working Man's Club Strongly recommends security for all events over 100 guests. We can organise our recommended security company at an additional cost. Security firm must be approved by Mildura Working Man's Club.

No Smoking in accordance to State Government Legislation from July 1st 2016. Smoking is not permitted indoors or outdoors where food is served.
